ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA. July 12.-The exhibarating and awaken ing effects of last week's celebration still pervade the atmosphere at the Rockbridge Alum Springs with a company largely augmented as to members and socially on the qui vive to extract as much enjoyment as possible from each day's beginning, its developing and its day's beginning, its developing and its passing.

The Fourth of July was brilliant and cloudless here. It begun and ended without a single untoward occurrence to spoil its pleasure. Among a number of the day's visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Scott and their daughter, Miss Helen Scott, of Augusta, Ga., who drove over from the Warm Springs, where they are spending the summer to see friends at this resort. They received a warm welcome and their departure in the afternoon was attended with many regrets.

The warm weather, tempered at this point by delightful breezes and refreshing nights, has brought a sensible increase to the summer colony within the last few days, and added pleasantness of the same being in exact proportion to the number of new arrivals.

The inaugural social episode of the sease to the summer colony within the realier evening hours progressive enchreclaimed the attention of a card-playing contingent. The game was admirably managed by Mr. E. L. Mayer, of Norfolk, At the summing up of scores when the close came, the lady's prize was won by Mrs. W. B. Seeskind, of New York, Mr. Mayer was fortunate in cutting with Mr. James Branch Cabell for the gentleman's honor. The consolation feil to Miss Elizabeth Rawson, of Atlanta.

Mrs. W. B. Seeskind and Mrs. M. C. Michael, the former being a Paris confection of white organdy, garnitured with white Irish Point lace and built upon a foundation of pink accordion plaited chiffon and silk. With this was shown a rosetted sash in pink and white the sleeves were cut after the full empire pattern and a pink rose was worn in the hair with diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Michael's costume was en princesse and en train in filmy white finished around the bottom of the skirt with a

A farther finishing effect was given by rosettes of white satin ribbon, a hig picture hat of white chiffon with white ostrich feathers and turquoise as terrels.

THE PLAYERS.

Players included Mrs Cunningham, of Richmond, one of the most agreeable mations on the place and one who conmations on the place and one who contributes possibly more to the social enjoyment of the hour than any one else, Mrs. A. Tyler, of Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Lucie Gibbs Patton, of Richmond, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dayton Hausreath, of New York city; Miss Emily Lyman, of Richmond, Va.; Miss Elizabeth Rawson, of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. James Branch Cabell, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. E. L. Mayer, eff Norfolk, Va.; Master Pierre Michael, of Galveston, Tex.; and Dr. W. R. Jones, of Richmond, Va. Mr. Tate Masson, of Orange, Va., scored during the game and contributed in no little degree to its undoubted success.

Tuesday evening's diversion was followered up on Wednesday forenoon by a charming luncheon given in the plazza of bis cottage by Mr. Mayer, who was assisted in doing the honors of the occasion by Mrs. Cunningham, Refreshments were served on little tables and were fellicious, the charming Those fortunate enough to come within the scope of their influence were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Seesidad, Cantain and Mrs. W. B. Seesidad, Cantain and Mrs. H. E. Smith, Mrs. S. D. Clarke, Mrs. Reushea, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. L. G. Patton, Mrs. A. W. Whitehurst, Mrs. A. M. Tyler and Mr. James Branch Cabell, Before the merry party imally broke up they posed in a group and the scene was photographed for further reference and happy emphasis in recollection.

The Bolt ground, which have been put

The golr ground, which have been put In first-class condition this season are the favorite camping-out grounds for all inclined to robust or out-of-door pleas-ure. The tournament of this week, played with great spirit, resulted in victory for Mrs. W. B. Seeskind, who, with Mrs. H. E. Smith, leads the list of feminine golf players. Dr. W. R. Jones, of kichmond was the lucky man among the gentleman, was the lucky man among the gentleman, as his friends will be pleased to hote. A pleasant feature of the daily life at this place is the frequent social interchange carried on with the company at the Hotel Alleghany, of Goshen, Va. One of the pleasantest coaching parties from that hotel brought to this several days ago Mr and Mrs. W L. Burke, Miss Rosa Witz, Mr. T. Grasty, of Staunton, and Mr. E. D. N. ton, and Mr. E. D. N. Whitney, of Washington, D. C. Coaching through such a bleasant country, with such opportunities and such ideal weather must always be a favorite pursuit of those who come hither in pursuit of health or recreation.

Mrs. Aifred T. Pope, of Louisville, Ky., most pleasantly recalled in hichmond, through her visit to Mrs. Thomas B. McAdams last spring, is again occupying the Pope cottage in South Carolina row, associated with her name through previous occupancy. Mr. Pendleton Pope is with his mother. Both are great favorites with indwellers and frequenters of the Rock Alum.

Prof. Robert G. Cabell, of the Virginia Milliary Institute, Lexington, Va., is expected to arrive in about a week and join his brother, Mr. James Branch Cabell, who has been here since last week.

Mrs. Robert G. Cabell, the mother of these two young gentlemen will be missed from her accustomed place among the visitors to the Alum this summer as she leaves Richmond for New York to-morrow and will sall by the Teutonic, July 16, for London, England, to visit her triend, Mrs. Katherine Cowan, From London, Mrs. Cabell will go to France and will be at Aix le Bains for most of the summer. Her autumn independent have not yet been fully decided upon Among the agreeable people who will swell the number of cottagers for July and August will probably be Mrs. James Branch, of Richmond, Va. whose advent is looked forward to with much interest and eagerness by her many friends and accountnances.

NEGROES RAISING MONEY

They Are Preparing to Fight Constitution in Brunswick.

The negroes of Brunswick county have issued the following circular, with the view to fighting the new Constitution: Responding to the request of the mass meeting held at Lawrenceveille, Va., June 23, 1902, to consider ways and means to test the new Constitution recently proclaimed for the State, we, the undersigned committee, appointed by the said meeting, respectfully submit the following address:

You are no doubt aware of the fac that nearly all of us are disfranchised by that infamous Constitution, wi is in plain voilation of the United States Constitution: that our only redress lies in testing it before the Supreme Court of the land. To do this funds must be raised to pay the cost of the same.

1. It was requested at our meeting that our ministers explain the matter from their pulpits, and with the aid of their deacons and Sunday-school workers collect funds for said purpose.

2. That the people meet at their respective precincts on the first Saturday in July, 1992, and select a committee of three active and reliable men to canvass their precincts and co-operate with the churches and Sunday-schools in raising funds. It is also a request that each individual contribute at least twenty-five cents and as much more as they feel disposed.

The committee and other workers to keep a correct list of those who help and those who fail, and meet at Lawrenceville on the first Saturday in August and make returns of all funds collected the same to be forwarded to the head quarters at Richmond, Va.

FUNERAL WAS STOPPED

Doctors Performed Autopsy and Then Let Proceedings Go On.

(By Associated Press.) NILES, MICH., July 12 -A few days ago John Kamin, a German farmer near the village of New Boston, died and to-day 500 people gathered to attend the funeral. Just as the remains were being conveyed from the house to the hearse two doctors drove up armed with author-ity to stop the burial pending a postmortem examination.

About two hours were thus consumed, during which time rumors of poisoning floated over the surrounding country. The doctors finally allowed the rites to proceed. A suspicion expressed to the coroner by one of the heirs caused the post-mortem.

Returning from the funeral a buggy occupied by two sens of the deceased collided, apparently by design, with that of Gus Kamin, completely demolishing the latter rig. The sons have been ar-

CURTAILS SOCIAL FEATURES

Heat Too Great for Any Great Activity Judge Campbell, of St Louis, Was Thrown from Buggy and His Head Badly Gashed.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) WARM SPRINGS, VA., July 12 .- The social features at the hotel have fallen a little snort this week, due principally to the extreme heat. Every day this week mercury has registered nothing less than 100 degrees above zero, which is a rarity, as the average heat here is about 85 to 90 degrees.

There are many visitors here, though and all engage in some sport or other. The Richmond people who are here seem to fancy the drives and indulge freely in them. Every day the hacks convey them to Dunn's Gap. Flag Rock, Jackson's River or the Cascades, all of which are within seven miles of this place.

The Northerners like hunting and fishing and golfing. Daily from about 3 to 6:30 o'clock P. M. the golf links are filled with flying salls and once a week a tournament is held.

The young folks have their fun principally at night in the ball room. The band furnishes them music from nine until eleven and they make merry the whole time. The room is not suitable for over twenty couples, but there are generally about thirty.

The most exciting incident during the season thus far occurred when Judge Given Campbell, of St. Louis, Mo., was theowin from a bucky and his bead ter-thrown from a buggy and his head ter-ribly gashed. He has, however, passed the serious stage and Dr. Robert F. Williams, of Richmond, his physician, thinks he will be himself again by August. RECENT ARRIVALS.

Those who have registered here since yesterday morning are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Scott, Miss H. M. Scott, Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. E. B. Tennant and Miss Lyon, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. H. W. SHOT HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW Velander M. Crews in Hospital-His Assailant in Jail (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

SCOTTSVILLE, VA., July 12.-William Zimmerman, Jr., shot and seriously injured Velander M. Crews, his brother-inlaw, at Alberene, with a thirty-two call bre revolver last night about 7:30 o'clock.

A very bad feeling has existed between these two young men for some time, and they met yesterday afternoon at Powell & Coles' bar-room and a fight ensued, in which Zimmerman was worsted. He had a revolver fully loaded on his person when the difficulty commenced, but one of the bystanders got possession of same and extracted the cartridges, thus preventing the shooting at that time.

Zimmerman a short time afterwards secured two cartridges, with which he loaded his revolver, and then, going up to Crews, he grasped him by the right shoulder with his left hand and pressed the revolver with his right hand against Crews' body and fired.

The bullet entered Crews' right side a short distance above the groin, and al-though Dr. J. E. Coles probed for it for some time last night, the bullet has not yet been located, but it is feared that the wound is of a very serious nature, and Mr. Crews has been taken to the hospital in Charlottesville.
